THIS WEEK: PACKING & ARRIVAL

If you are traveling from another city or country to come to DePaul, then it is time to pack your bags! We recommend that you bring only as much as you can carry alone – all at one time – around one city block!

Here are some recommendations about what things to bring with you in your bags: Packing Checklist.

When you arrive in the U.S. whether you are living on-campus or off-campus will impact what items you will need. Check out DePaul's recommendations for your on-campus move-in.

If you are still looking for housing off-campus, make sure to check-out DePaul's off-campus housing website: https://offcampushousing.depaul.edu/

There are many questions and resources you may be looking for as you plan your travel. Take a look at our Global DePaul Welcome page for answers to some of your questions.

We also recommend you do some research and plan what your first steps will be when you arrive at the airport. Read some information about how to travel from the airport: Transportation.

Let us know if you have any questions. You can always reach us at ISS@depaul.edu.

Safe travels! We look forward to meeting you soon!

Best wishes,

The ISS Team
Hiwoté, Jill, Jennie, Sandra, Faye, Leslie, Victoria, Gwen, and Anna

 Why am I receiving this email?
Soon you will begin your academic adventure at DePaul University. DePaul is a large university and International Student and Scholar Services (ISS) will connect you to the many resources you need to be successful here. In the weeks before you start your first quarter as a DePaul student, ISS will send you emails with information that will help you prepare. In case you miss any of our communication, we will also have it posted to our website so you may catch up on the various topics covered. Also, please don't forget to visit our website to learn more about how to register for your international student orientation and what to expect.
