

If you are a student in F-1 status requesting a SEVIS Transfer I-20 Form from DePaul University (DPU) you must

- Complete Section 1 and give it to the international student office at your current school to have Section 2 completed.
- Submit this completed form to DPU along with a copy of the identification page of your passport.

You must obtain a SEVIS Transfer I-20 from DPU if you are already in F-1 status and are either:

- currently enrolled at or recently graduated from a U.S. school
- currently in your period of Optional Practical Training (OPT) or recently completed your period of OPT

NOTE: You MUST request the transfer of your SEVIS I-20 record from your previous school within 60 days of completion of your studies and/or your OPT period.

Once you obtain a SEVIS Transfer I-20 from the DPU admissions office, you must:

- Go to the Office for International Students and Scholars (OISS) at DPU before the program start date indicated in Item #5 (old format) or the Program of Study section (new format) of your DPU SEVIS I-20. The OISS is located at 1 E. Jackson Boulevard, Suite 9300. Failure to report to the OISS within 15 days of the reporting date in Item #5 (old format) or the Program of Study section (new format) of your DPU SEVIS I-20 will result in a loss of lawful F-1 status.
- Take your immigration documents when reporting to the OISS: DePaul Transfer I-20, passport, visa stamp (in passport), I-94 card, I-20 from previous school, and OPT EAD card (if applicable).
