

explore majors with OAAS!

The Office for Academic Advising Support
773-325-7431

Major: Sports Communication, BA

Sports Communication allows students to combine the best of business and communication skills and prepare to work in the sports industry.

What skills do students develop in this program?

Students in Sports Communication develop skills in multimedia, writing, social media management, and general business skills.

What kind of student is a good fit for Sports Communication?

Anybody who is interested in working in any capacity in sports for teams, leagues, organizations, or brands.

Are there any popular classes in the program that you would suggest or recommended classes for a student who is just starting to explore the major?

- SPRTCMN 310: Sports Media & Society

What are examples of internships and/or research opportunities that students in this major are currently working on or have access to as majors in this program?

Students are involved in internships with a variety of Chicago-based teams, leagues, organizations, and brands - Cubs, White Sox, Bulls, Blackhawks, Bears, Sky, Red Stars, Wolves, etc.

What are students doing after graduation?

Graduates are getting jobs in sports in a range of careers - communication, management, and marketing are a few examples.

Other interesting facts about the Sports Communication major?

Being part of a Sports Communication major at DePaul in Chicago is a truly unique experience--there's nothing like getting collegiate experience in sports in a major professional sports city and partnering with a Big East Athletic Department!