

Make Your Voice Heard on Unionization!

You Can:

Solicit support for or against a union from your fellow faculty outside of classroom time

You Can:

Distribute information for or against union representation as long as you don't do so while instructing a class or disrupting someone else's class

You Can:

Connect with faculty members to better understand everyone's views about the advantages or disadvantages of union representation at DePaul

You Can:

Attend meetings or gatherings, and discuss and ask questions about the pros and cons of union representation and the benefits of having a direct relationship with DePaul