

Office for Academic Advising Services

Learning Outcomes

After engaging in Office for Academic Advising Services, students will be able to:

- Identify academic options that are aligned with their interests, abilities, and academic/professional goals
- Demonstrate increased familiarity with the breadth of available undergraduate academic options (i.e., majors, minors, and certificate programs)
- Identify appropriate courses in which to enroll to begin studies in particular academic areas
- Identify appropriate faculty, staff, and co-curricular resources that can assist in academic exploration
- Develop an educational plan to maintain progress toward their educational goals
- Locate and use available resources to understand and plan their degree requirements (i.e., University Catalog, Degree Progress Report, college/departmental websites)
- Select appropriate academic options to pursue after considering the impact of past academic, personal, and professional experiences
- Evaluate their academic decisions to determine commitment to academic options or the need to re-evaluate academic alternatives
