

DEPAUL UNIVERSITY OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Here, We Stand Together.

St. Vincent de Paul taught us “love is inventive to infinity.” Love and hate cannot coexist, so there is no room for hate here.

The university’s mission statement commits us to compassionately uphold the dignity of all members of our diverse, multi-faith, and inclusive community.

Our Catholic values call us to respect the humanity of every person.

Our Vincentian beliefs lead us to serve and care for others.

Our urban character compels us to work for equity and justice.

We reject hate, racism, and violence.

We support all who are part of our university community.

We affirm that hate has no home here.

Here, We Stand Together.
