Hate, discrimination, and harassment have no place at DePaul and bias incidents should be reported when they occur. We want to remind students that any bias incidents can be reported at <https://offices.depaul.edu/student-affairs/title-ix/Pages/discrimination-harassment.aspx> and staff and faculty can report incidents to <https://offices.depaul.edu/human-resources/employee-relations/equal-opportunity/Pages/Discrimination-and-Harassment.aspx>. We encourage our community to stand up to Anti-Asian hate and bias in all its forms when you see it. Advancing Justice Chicago is offering free bystander trainings to equip individuals with the skills to do so. You can register for this free training at <https://www.advancingjustice-chicago.org/what-we-do/bystander-intervention-trainings/>. You can also report incidents to Stop AAPI Hate, which has a reporting portal available in English and multiple Asian languages at <https://stopaapihate.org/>.

We also remind students, faculty, and staff that help, and support are available.
