Lincoln Park Student Center
Room 120 AB

DePaul's Women Network
DPUWomensNetwork@depaul.edu

Join the DePaul Women's Network for the Women of Spirit and Action (WSA) Awards. WSA strengthens our Catholic heritage by honoring women at DePaul who reflect the spirit of St. Louise de Marillac. St. Louise was a wife, mother, nurse, social worker, teacher and community organizer in 17th century France. St. Louise acted from a deep place of faith in God and out of a sense of love and joy rather than obligation. WSA pays homage to St. Louise for her tireless commitment to the service of others by providing the DePaul community an opportunity to gather and celebrate the many contributions of women at DePaul. Nominate a woman of DePaul who strives to be a modern day St. Louise.

zielinski@cdm.depaul.edu

The College of Computing and Digital Media's Visiting Artist Series will present a screening of "Hate Crimes in the Heartland" followed by an onstage conversation with Emmy Award-winning documentary filmmaker Rachel Lyon and civil rights activist Reverend Jesse Jackson. The film is a compelling exploration of the media's coverage of hate crimes spanning 90 years in Tulsa, Oklahoma. It reveals the extremes of racial tension in America's heartland, told through the eyes of survivors of the 1921 Race Riot and the 2012 "Good Friday Murders." The screening will be held to honor and raise awareness of historical issues during Black History month.

A Conference on Indigenous Hawaiian Culture, History and Art is a radically interdisciplinary conference meant to be a commemoration and investigation of Hawaiian cultures, thus increasing knowledge as well as celebrating the ways in which that diversity contributes to the beauty of the world. It is scheduled to take place as part of Asian-Pacific American Heritage month in May 2014.

"Veterans' Voices" by Erasing the Distance

Friday, May 23, 2014

12-9 p.m.
Loop Campus, Daley Building
LL102, College of Communication
Theater

School for New Learning
SNLevents@depaul.edu

DePaul SNL is humbled as we honor unsung history makers of the military during Memorial Day. The Veterans' Voices event will recognize the lives and contributions of some of our nation's forgotten heroes and their families. This event includes a performance by Erasing the Distance, which connects those servicemen and women who have served with those who are not aware of the struggle. Using theatre, this event looks to increase understanding and compassion for our country's veterans as well as tear down the barriers between those who have served and civilians.
