Microsoft Teams

Computers and Technology

For laptops, people can either send an email Tonya Harvey-McDonald or Robert McCormick. They are working on getting the machines and coordinating how to get them to faculty and staff.

For Microsoft Teams: Best place to start is base homepage for Teams here: Microsoft Teams This site should contain everything that folks need to get started and you can always reach out to the Helpdesk if you have any other questions.

BUILD Program

BUILD Diversity Certificate

The Office of Institutional Diversity and Equity is pleased to sponsor BUILD, a professional development diversity certificate available to all DePaul University faculty and staff. BUILD provides participants with the "building blocks to an inclusive campus".
