

Bloodborne Pathogens Quiz

Name:	Date:
Department:	Employee      Student
Laboratory (if applicable):

1. At minimum, how long does it take to wash your hands properly?
2. The bloodborne diseases that are a concern in the US are caused by bacteria.

True

False
3. You can get HIV from sharing a glass of water with someone who has it.

True

False
4. You notice a needle on the quad. What should you do?
5. In which of these cases has an exposure incident occurred?
6. Vomit is always considered other potentially infectious material (OPIM).

True

False
7. Hepatitis means inflammation of the _____.
8. It is possible to not know you have HIV, HBV or HCV for 10 years or more.

True

False
9. You can use a 10% bleach solution that has been in a cabinet for a week to disinfect an area where blood was spilled.

True

False

10. There is no point in using universal precautions if you are pretty sure someone does not have a bloodborne disease.

True

False

11. If you decline the HBV vaccination, you cannot choose to receive it at a later time.

True

False

12. DePaul will cover the cost of medical evaluation and follow up if an employee has an exposure incident due to not following proper procedures.

True

False

13. Which of the following is considered "other potentially infectious materials"?

14. The best person to ask about department specific procedures is _____.

15. A used bandage with a drop of blood must be disposed of as biohazardous waste.

True

False

16. What is the single most effective way to prevent the spread of infection? _____

17. It is safe to pick up broken glass as long as you wear gloves.

True

False

18. If you witness an exposure incident, what should you ensure the person does first?

Please save and email this completed quiz to ehsoffice@depaul.edu.