

Bloodborne Pathogens Quiz

Name:	Date:
Department:	Employee Student
Laboratory (if applicable):

1. At minimum, how long does it take to wash your hands properly?
2. The bloodborne diseases that are a concern in the US are caused by bacteria.
True
False
3. You can get HIV from sharing a glass of water with someone who has it.
True
False
4. Which of the following items can be disposed of loosely in the trash?
5. In which of these cases has an exposure incident occurred?
6. It is fine to place needles used to inject mice into a yellow, rigid container labeled "SHARPS."
True
False
7. Hepatitis means inflammation of the _____.
8. It is possible to not know you have HIV, HBV or HCV for 10 years or more.
True
False
9. You can use a 10% bleach solution that has been in a cabinet for a week to disinfect an area where blood was spilled.
True
False

10. There is no point in using universal precautions if you are pretty sure someone does not have a bloodborne disease.

True

False

11. If you decline the HBV vaccination, you cannot choose to receive it at a later time.

True

False

12. DePaul will cover the cost of medical evaluation and follow up if an employee has an exposure incident due to not following proper procedures.

True

False

13. Where can you find the full definition of "other potentially infectious materials"?

14. You should change gloves after _____ and before _____ a blood spill.

15. It is obvious if someone has a bloodborne disease because of their symptoms.

True

False

16. What is the single most effective way to prevent the spread of infection? _____

17. It is safe to pick up broken glass as long as you wear gloves.

True

False

18. If you witness an exposure incident, what should you ensure the person does first?