

ISO Health Insurance and Presence Medical Group at DePaul University

Getting the most for your money

What is Presence Medical Group at DePaul University?

Presence Medical Group is a privately-owned medical facility at DePaul University that provides discounted health care to all DePaul students. For a small health services fee—$60 per academic term—Presence Medical Group will treat many minor illnesses and injuries to DePaul students at NO cost. You may pay this fee when you visit the Presence Medical Group office or you may pay the fee through Campus Connect. For a list of services covered under the health services fee, please visit this website: DePaul.edu > Student Affairs > Support Services > Health Wellness > Health Services.

What is ISO International Student Health Insurance?

ISO is an accident & sickness health insurance plan that will help pay for the majority of your medical costs for major illnesses and medical emergencies. For more information about the ISO insurance plan, please visit isoa.org/depaul_university.

ISO HEALTH INSURANCE & PRESENCE MEDICAL GROUP WORK TOGETHER.

How does Presence Medical Group at DePaul University work with the ISO insurance?

If you pay the health services fee, you will not need to use your ISO insurance at Presence Medical Group at DePaul University for any services included in the health services fee. If your medical condition is not covered by the health services fee, your ISO insurance will then be used to help pay for your medical costs. Even for services outside the health services fee, these costs will be lower at Presence Medical Group at DePaul University than at other health care providers. This is because ISO designates Presence Medical Group at DePaul University as a “student health center.”

Paying the health services fee may LOWER YOUR MEDICAL COSTS when using Presence Medical Group at DePaul University for certain services.

Example of costs for treatment of a MINOR ILLNESS OR INJURY covered by the health services fee (such as an infection or flu) at Presence Medical Group at DePaul University:

	PAID $60 fee	DID NOT PAY $60 fee	In-Network Doctor other than Presence Medical Group at DePaul University
Sage fee	$60*	$0	$0
ISO deductible	$0	$25	$90
Payments after insurance claim	$0	20% of most medical services received	20% of most medical services received
Total	$60*	Estimated: $70-$300	Estimated: $135-$365

*Once you pay the health services fee, any other visits to Presence Medical Group at DePaul University for minor illnesses or injuries covered by the health services fee in the same academic term will be free. If you do not pay the health services fee you will pay for medical services every time you see a doctor, whether at Presence Medical Group at DePaul University or elsewhere.

Please refer to the ISO policy brochure for full details of your ISO Student Health Insurance plan.

What happens if the $60 health services does not cover the medical service you receive?

If the medical services you received is not included with the health services fee, you will use your ISO insurance card and pay a $25 deductible at the Presence Medical Group at DePaul University. This is still less expensive than a $90 deductible for in-network doctors. You will receive a medical bill in the mail to pay for all services you received after the ISO insurance plan pays for their portion of your medical bill.

We highly recommend you take advantage of both ISO health insurance and the option to purchase the health services fee.
