

We know, we know, we sound like your parents, but where did the time go?! It's time to begin thinking about and preparing for spring quarter move-out. Watch for details from University Center management on how to check out, return your keys and more. Don't want to give up living two blocks from campus? More info below on how to return to on-campus housing for 2017-18.

Apartment-style units are still available on the Loop Campus for the 2017-18 academic year. Not only will you keep your short commute, but apartment-style units are fully equipped with in-unit kitchens. You can also switch things up and live on the Lincoln Park Campus! To learn more about availability, contact housing@depaul.edu.

(that's a lot). Coming in 2017-18.

Raise your hand if at least once this year your parents told you to “Get a job!” Housing Services is hiring Lincoln Park residence hall desk receptionists for the 2017-18 academic year. Attendance at an information session is mandatory in order to be considered for the position. Visit studentemployment.depaul.edu to view the job listing and apply. While you’re there, you can also view our opening for an EDGE Media and Marketing Team supervisor.

April Loop Life Spotlight: Grant Park

It probably goes without saying, but did you know that Chicago's front yard is literally in your backyard? Grant Park consists of a whopping 319 acres of space just awaiting exploration. Jump on a shared bike, go for a jog or just lie in the grass and soak in the city sights around you. Seriously, just writing this we're getting jealous.

April Resident Reminders:

- Internship in the city? Just can't go back home? If you're interested in summer housing at the University Center, please contact Housing Services at (773) 325-7196. If you want to live in Lincoln Park for summer, the online agreement is available here. Priority is given to those who complete an agreement by May 1, 2017.
