

Desk Receptionist and Lead Desk Receptionist (DR & LDR)
Employment Expectations
Updated 8.28.2017

Desk Receptionists are referred to as DRs or front desk employees and Lead Desk Receptionists are referred to as LDRs throughout this document.

This document may be updated at any time as supervisors may need to adjust policies and processes throughout the academic year. Employees will be notified via email if/when there are changes or updates.

GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

DUTIES

Front desk employees are responsible for the duties described in the Desk Receptionist (DR) / Lead Desk Receptionist (LDR) position descriptions as well as additional duties designated by supervisors.

AVAILABILITY

Front desk employees are hired for the academic year. DePaul University residence hall front desks are open throughout the year including break periods. A smaller staff of Desk Receptionists and Lead Desk Receptionists are hired to work during winter break and summer break periods. Supervisors will announce the application process for break period Desk Receptionist and Lead Desk Receptionist positions in advance and all who are in good employment standing are welcome to apply.

Graduating seniors, who are not international students, can continue to work the break period following graduation. For example, if a graduating senior graduates in Winter Quarter, this student can work during spring break. If a graduating senior graduates in Spring Quarter, this student can continue to work for the summer break up until the start of the next academic quarter.

DEPAUL REPRESENTATIVES

Front desk employees are expected to have a complete working knowledge of the policies for students as outlined in the DePaul University Student Handbook and The Guide to Student Housing and are responsible for supporting the same. Front desk employees must also be familiar with and follow university and departmental policies and procedures and are expected to model, at all times, appropriate behavior and be exemplary representatives of the Department of Housing Services and the University. This includes wearing appropriate attire while working.

CONDUCT

Front desk employees involved in conduct issues or any employee receiving serious sanctions from the Dean of Students Office or Residential Education may be subject to progressive discipline, up to and including termination.

IN-YEAR TRAINING / MEETINGS

Front desk employees must attend all training sessions (workshops, in-services, scheduling meetings, etc.) during the period of employment unless excused by a member of the supervisory team. Fall training occurs at the start of the year and is mandatory for all desk employees. Front desk employees must also meet with their supervisors when required.

COMMUNICATION STANDARDS / W2W

Front desk employees are expected to adhere to the Housing Services' communications standard of responding to e-mails, When to Work correspondence (W2W), and phone calls from supervisors in a timely manner. This standard does not include on-call situations, which require immediate response. Front desk employees should use the preferred e-mail account that they have provided to their supervisors. Supervisors will send ALL front desk related communications to this e-mail address.

Front desk employees must make sure personal contact information is accurate and updated in When to Work with preferred e-mail account and preferred phone number. Supervisors will send DR communications to the e-mail address listed in When to Work.

MISSION & DIVERSITY

Front desk employees are expected to uphold and support the University and Housing Services' Mission Statement and Commitment to Diversity.

WORK SHIFT EXPECTATIONS

TIMELINESS

It is crucial and expected that all front desk employees arrive on time to their scheduled area or desk. Missing a shift, failure to be on time to a shift, or failure to relay appropriate information to supervisor(s) (e.g. contacting the LDR by phone if running late) are unacceptable. Front desk employees should arrive a few minutes before their shift start time to ensure a smooth transition from employee to employee and should not clock in until the actual shift start time.

HOLIDAYS

According to DePaul University's Policies & Procedures Manual, part-time employees (including student employees) are not eligible for holiday pay. DePaul Housing Services does pay hourly front desk student employees more (time and a half) for the following shifts:

- Thanksgiving Day
- Christmas Eve (4:00PM – 12:00AM) / Christmas Day
- New Year's Eve (4:00PM – 12:00AM) / New Year's Day

NO CALL / NO SHOW

Front desk employees are required to work ALL of their assigned shifts. If a DR/LDR places a shift on the When to Work tradeboard and the shift is NOT picked up by another employee, the original employee is responsible for the shift and must come to work.

CALL OFFs / PAID SICK LEAVE

Front desk employees are responsible for each of their assigned shifts until and unless their shift is claimed by another employee. Front desk employees are also responsible for communicating scheduling conflicts in advance to the scheduling supervisor and are expected to inform the shift supervisor (LDR on duty) about any immediate scheduling conflicts as soon as possible.

Front desk employees are expected to regularly check their schedule and post conflicts on the When to Work tradeboard as trades. If an employee has an emergency that prevents them from arriving to or completing a shift, they must also find a substitute to work the shift. Failure to arrive to the shift or secure coverage for the shift will be considered a no show and may result in job action up to termination. The employee may be asked by the Human Resources supervisor to demonstrate that there was an extenuating circumstance and may be required to provide appropriate documentation.

Paid Sick Leave is accrued by all student hourly employees at DePaul. This program is new as of July 2017. Please visit the below link for more information:

<https://offices.depaul.edu/human-resources/Pages/paid-sick-leave.aspx>

Student employees accrue 1 hour of paid sick leave for every 40 hours worked. Any employee wishing to use their accrued paid sick leave allowance must complete the Housing Facilities Timesheet Change Request Form for tracking purposes at least one (1) hour before the scheduled shift time. All employees who wish to use accrued sick leave hours MUST complete the form. If an employee is to become sick during a desk shift, the Lead Desk Receptionist should report this in the End of Shift Report and ask the employee to complete the timesheet change form if they wish to use any accrued sick leave.

It is strongly discouraged for an employee to take sick leave time during the last week of employment or near a planned resignation. The Paid Sick Leave Ordinance is designed as a benefit to be used for students who are legitimately sick. If an employee takes paid sick leave on or near their last day of employment without a legitimate excuse, supervisors reserve the right to disclose that information to potential future employers during employment reference checks.

PERFORMANCE IMPROVEMENT PLAN

Front desk employees who have received progressive discipline (e.g., a verbal warning or a written warning) may submit a written request to a supervisor three months after the date that they received their progressive discipline warning and request a review of their status. If the request is granted, the status of the job action will be decelerated (e.g. a final written warning to a written warning) only if the employee has maintained a flawless record in the preceding three months.

MINIMUM SHIFT REQUIREMENT

Front desk employees must work at least 3 shifts or 12-hours per week unless otherwise approved by a supervisor. Employees who are approved for less than 3 shifts per week are typically students who hold other leadership positions on campus or student athletes. Toward the beginning of each quarter, front desk employees may be assigned two shifts per week and are encouraged to visit the tradeboard to pick up another shift to maintain the ideal of 3 shifts minimum per week.

DESK COVERAGE

Front desk employees may NOT leave the desk unattended during a shift. Supervisors are the only individuals who may cover a desk in an employee's absence. If an employee requires a personal break, a supervisor must be contacted to cover the desk and must be in place while the employee takes a bathroom or stretch break.

DEPARTMENTAL EQUIPMENT

Front desk employees may not misuse or neglect departmental equipment (desk phone, bar code scanners, computer, etc.). Improper use includes downloading programs to the front desk computers, viewing inappropriate or pornographic files or videos, use of the front desk phone for personal phone calls, allowing residents or guests to use/touch the computer/phone equipment, etc.

USE OF ELECTRONIC DEVICES

The use of cell/mobile phones, iPods (or any other MP3 players), headphones, wireless mobile phone headpieces (e.g. Bluetooth), portable Bluetooth speakers, etc. while working at a desk is strictly prohibited. These items distract front desk employees from being fully aware of their surroundings while at work.

COURSEWORK, STUDYING, & OVERALL ATTENTIVENESS

- It is acceptable to work on school work during a shift, however, if a supervisor observes a Desk Receptionist being too distracted, the supervisor will ask the employee to stop the work and put all materials away for the duration of the shift in order to be more attentive. The employee is to comply with this directive from the supervisor.
- Some DePaul sponsored websites are accessible at the front desk computers (D2L, Digication, etc.). Laptop computers and other devices (tablets, iPads, etc.) are allowed to be used on shift. If at any point, a supervisor observes an employee who is too distracted by the aforementioned devices or with study materials, the supervisor will ask the employee to stop the work and put away devices or materials for the remainder of the shift in order to be more attentive. The employee is to comply with this directive from a supervisor.
- Headphones are NOT allowed on shift and volume on devices must be kept to a very low setting.
- Cell phones are NOT allowed on shift.

Cell phones must be put away in bags and not visible during any part of an employee's shift – they may not even be visible when charging. Cell phone use, specifically texting, causes Desk Receptionists to look down and lose peripheral vision. This type of distraction makes it challenging for Desk Receptionists to have full awareness of the lobby/entrance spaces. If a supervisor observes a Desk Receptionist using a cell phone or if an employee's cell phone is out at a desk, the employee will be asked to put the device away and out of sight. The employee can also expect progressive discipline follow up which may lead to termination of employment. Supervisors are firm related to any observed instances of cell phone use as cell phones are explicitly prohibited.

- Sleeping or Tiredness

Sleeping on the job will NOT be tolerated because it poses a major security risk. Front desk employees cannot control hall access if they are sleeping or dozing off while working. Staff members who are sleeping at work or appear to be too tired to work will be asked to leave the shift immediately and will not receive pay for the remainder of the shift.

FRIENDS AT WORK / ALCOHOL IN DESK AREAS

Although we expect our front desk employees to be friendly and remain part of the residential community at DePaul, employees must understand that interactions with friends and peers should be kept to a minimum. It is not appropriate for friends or peers to sit and talk with others for extended periods of time. It is also not appropriate for anyone, whether they are of age or not, to have any alcoholic beverage containers (closed or opened) in any of the hall front desk areas. Friends and peers are NEVER allowed behind the front desk. Front desk employees must keep distractions to a minimum in order to perform all necessary functions of their job.

TIME KEEPING

WEB CLOCK

All employees must clock in and clock out of their shifts utilizing the DePaul University web clock in Campus Connect. Payroll information is recorded directly from the end of shift reports submitted by shift supervisors and from the When to Work scheduling program. If employees make last minute changes to their work schedule or fill in for someone who cannot come in to work, they are responsible for communicating this change to the shift supervisor to ensure that the change is reflected in the end of shift report.

Employees must also clock-in and clock-out when filling in for another employee. Missed time punches should be reported to the payroll supervisor via the Housing Facilities Timesheet Change Request Form as soon as possible so that the times can be manually entered in order to ensure that the DR is paid correctly.

BREAKS

Lead Desk Receptionists complete 1-2 sets of rounds during each shift. When they visit the desks, they will ask Desk Receptionists if they need a quick, under five minutes, personal break (bathroom or stretch break). Desk Receptionists can contact their Lead on call at any time to request a break. If a Lead Desk Receptionist is busy at the time of the request, the Facilities Area Coordinator on call can be contacted to assist with giving a break.

Illinois law states that any employee working more than 7.5 consecutive hours must be provided a minimum of 20 minutes of unpaid lunch time with a break being given no later than five hours after beginning work.

Desk shifts are 4 to 4.25 hour long shifts, not 8 hour long shifts and picking up 2 shifts in a row is not part of a regular schedule. Front desk employees might pick up a secondary shift from the tradeboard resulting in two shifts in a row or a double shift. In the case of a double shift, front desk supervisors will provide the opportunity for a desk employee to take a 20 minute break and this break must occur within the first five hours of the combined shifts. For front desk shifts only, we are budgeted to offer paid breaks for double shifts and we strongly encourage that the employee take the appropriate break.

Triple shifts or three shifts in one day are not allowed. The scheduler monitors the schedule for double and triple shifts and will ask an employee to trade a shift or two away.

APPOINTMENT

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

Supervisors will evaluate employee job performance in accordance with the Office of Student Employment and Human Resources guidelines each quarter. An unsatisfactory evaluation or violations of any of the policies and expectations detailed herein may result in progressive discipline, up to and including termination.

RESIGNATIONS

Resignations must be submitted, in writing (letter or email), to the Facilities Area Coordinator responsible for personnel matters. As a professional courtesy, Housing Services supervisors request that front desk employees resigning from their position give their supervisors two weeks' notice in order to accommodate the change in staffing patterns.

DURATION OF EMPLOYMENT

Front desk employee appointments are limited to one academic year. Appointment for the following academic year is contingent upon reapplication, performance evaluation, residence hall staffing configurations, departmental need, and funding, as well as successful completion of the on-boarding process.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Front desk employees may be granted an extended leave of absence in order to participate in an internship, for a study abroad program, or for personal/health reasons. DRs or LDRs who temporarily leave the position may be able to resume employment as staffing needs permit. Reemployment is not guaranteed.

If an employee leaves the position for one academic quarter or more, employment is terminated and the employee will need to complete the hiring process before working as a front desk employee again. Any departing employee who wishes to return should contact supervisors 2-3 weeks before their anticipated return to formally reapply for the position. Applications from former employees who left the DR or LDR position while in good standing are given priority over other applicants.
