Eligible Dependents

If you are eligible for health benefits, you may also cover your eligible dependents. They include:

- your spouse
- your (or your spouse's) unmarried natural born, adopted or placed for adoption (meaning placed permanently with the employee for adoption) child, stepchild, or a child for whom the employee is the court-appointed legal guardian under the following guidelines.*

For medical—under age 26, or under age 30 if a military veteran residing in Illinois

For dental and vision - under age 23 with additional eligibility requirements

For dependent life insurance - under age 26

Refer to the Health Benefits Plan SPD on the Human Resources website for additional eligibility information including dependent tax implications. If any such children are not eligible to be federal income tax dependents, the Benefits Department must be notified and in accordance with IRS guidelines, you will be taxed on the portion of the premium associated with that dependent.

If you are adding dependent children for whom you are the court-appointed legal guardian, you must also complete the Declaration of Tax Status form.

Dependent Information:
Add/ Remove	Name of Dependent	Date of Birth	Social Security Number	Gender	Relationship

If you gain an eligible dependent through a change in family status or coverage change, you may cover that dependent by notifying the Benefits Department within 31 days after you have legally acquired the dependent. Coverage will begin as of the date you acquired the dependent.

By signing below, I certify that the information I have provided is accurate to the best of my knowledge and that the listed dependents are eligible for coverage as detailed above. I understand that I may be required to submit proof of dependent relationship and/or proof of family status change as required under Section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code.
