THIS WEEK: HOW TO LOOK FOR HOUSING

If you are planning to live in Chicago while you take classes, then we know determining where you will live is one of the most important concerns you have. It can be overwhelming to look for housing when you are not in the same city or country where you need that housing.

Explore your housing options on our webpage: How to Look for Housing. We have resources available to help you with both on-campus housing and off-campus housing. You may also consider arranging temporary housing until you can find something more permanent.

I NEED MORE HELP!

If you have questions, you may always reach us at ISS@depaul.edu.

Again, welcome to DePaul University!

Best wishes,

The ISS Team

Why am I receiving this email?

Soon you will begin your academic adventure at DePaul University. DePaul is a large university and International Student and Scholar Services (ISS) will connect you to the many resources you need to be successful here. In the weeks before you start your first quarter as a DePaul student, ISS will send you emails with information that will help you prepare. In case you miss any of our communication, we will also have it posted to our website so you may catch up on the various topics covered. Also, please don't forget to visit our website to learn more about how to register for your international student orientation and what to expect.
