

International Student and Scholar Services

Dear [NAME],

Welcome to DePaul University! We are glad that DePaul University is your school of choice!

All of us at International Student and Scholar Services (ISS) are excited that you will be joining us at DePaul University. Whether you are choosing to start your program remotely via online classes or traveling to Chicago to join us in person, we look forward to meeting you soon!

Here is a list of things to do this week to prepare for DePaul:

- Register for Orientation: We want to help you succeed as a student at DePaul in both our online and in-person classrooms and communities!
- Review the current academic calendar online
- Watch #YouAreWelcomeHere: Click here for a message from the DePaul community!
- Watch ISS: Building Connection & Community: In this short video, international students provide a short introduction of the many opportunities that our students have to build connections with the DePaul community. During this time we have converted some of our programs to online programs, so you can still join to build connection and community if studying online.

Again, welcome to DePaul University! You may always reach us at ISS@depaul.edu.

Best wishes,

The ISS Team

Hiwoté, Garrett, Jennie, Sandra, Ewa, Annie, Jill, and Lindsay

Why am I receiving this email?

Soon you will begin your academic adventure at DePaul University. DePaul is a large university and International Student and Scholar Services (ISS) will connect you to the many resources you need to be successful here. In the weeks before you start your first quarter as a DePaul student, ISS will send you emails with information that will help you prepare. In case you miss any of our communication, we will also have it posted to our website so you may catch up on the various topics covered. Also, please don't forget to visit our website to learn more about how to register for your international student orientation and what to expect.
