

Be a Global Ambassador!

The Global Ambassador Program (GAP) is a stipend opportunity for current undergraduate international students. Global Ambassadors share their experience and connect with prospective and admitted students. Global Ambassadors are awarded with a $1,000 stipend per quarter.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Post on GAP's Facebook page to promote international student life at DePaul.
- Correspond with prospective/admitted students via email, Facebook, Skype.
- Create a welcoming environment by calling newly admitted freshman international students.
- Attend International Admission, Global Engagement, and campus community events.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Current undergraduate international student with a minimum GPA of 3.0.
- Applicants should be creative, savvy with social media, strong writing skills, and eager to interact with students from around the globe.
- Ability to sign a photo release form to use your photo for marketing purposes.

TIME COMMITMENT

- 2018-2019 Academic Year (Fall, Winter & Spring Terms)
- Serve up to three office hours per week
- Attend quarterly group meetings

INTERESTED? APPLY TODAY!

Please submit the following materials hardcopy to International Admission by May 18, 2018 for consideration for the year 2018-2019.

1. Download the GAP application at go.depaul.edu/gap.
2. A one page personal statement indicating your interest in participating in GAP.
3. A copy of your unofficial university transcript.

Qualified applicants will be invited for an interview with International Admission.*

Questions? Email International Admission at international@depaul.edu