17, Friday
Departure

The big day has arrived! This afternoon we will check in at Chicago O’Hare Airport for the overnight, transatlantic flight. (D – in flight)

18, Saturday
Arrival, Paris

Upon arrival in Paris, we will collect our baggage and board our motorcoach. Then, we will be guided through the City of Light with a panoramic tour. Next, we will embark on a walking tour and visit to the iconic Notre Dame cathedral, a location Vincent and Louise would have frequented. After getting acquainted with the French capital, we will make our way to the Congregation of the Mission Motherhouse for check-in and some time to refresh. Before our group welcome dinner at a local restaurant, we will spend some time at the Vincentian Motherhouse, visiting the Vincentian Museum and the magnificent chapel with its reliquary containing St. Vincent’s remains. (B – in flight, D)

19, Sunday
Paris

Following breakfast at the Motherhouse, we will begin our day by following in the footsteps of Vincent and Louise. We will transfer by motorcoach to the Porte Saint-Denis – a distinct Parisian monument mimicking the iconic Arc de Triomphe. From here we will make our way on foot, stopping at Église Saint Laurent, the original burial site of St. Louise de Marillac, and ending at Saint-Lazare, the original motherhouse of the Congregation of the Mission. Then we will break into small groups for a time to explore Paris and connect with sites relevant to our own cultural identities. We will also shop for picnic contributions that we will bring to our group reflection and picnic under the Eiffel Tower later in the afternoon. The remainder of the evening will be free. (B, Picnic Late-Lunch)

20, Monday
Paris > Folleville > Amiens > Paris

The theme of the day today is the beginning of the mission and The Vincentian Question– What Must be Done? A full-day excursion is planned from Paris to Folleville and Amiens traveling through the beautiful French countryside. The Congregation of the Mission had its origins in a sermon given by St. Vincent in 1617 in the small parish church at Folleville. Upon arrival, coffee and refreshments will be served, followed by our visit to the church and chateau. Next we travel on to Amiens and enjoy a group lunch at Le Quai. We will then visit the Cathedral of Notre Dame at Amiens. Begun in 1220, this magnificent cathedral has an elegant nave, the highest in France. The interior has late-medieval stained-glass windows and an 18th-century wrought-iron screen. Late in the afternoon, we will return to Paris for an independent evening. (B, L)

21, Tuesday
Paris
Today is all about St. Louise de Marillac, Rosalie Rendu and the Daughters of Charity. After breakfast, we will begin our journey through Louise’s life starting at the Église Saint Gervais, then to the Église Saint Nicolas de Champs where Louise had her lumiere moment. We will visit the tomb of St. Louise de Marillac at the motherhouse of the Daughters of Charity and have an opportunity to connect with our global Vincentian family. After time for an independent lunch, we will travel by motorcoach to the Mouffetard district to learn about the life and work of Blessed Rosalie Rendu, a Daughter of Charity who lived during the French Revolution. The last stop of the day will be the Montparnasse Cemetery to visit the grave of Rosalie Rendu and other Vincentian family members and reflect on the legacies we hope to leave behind. Dinner tonight will be independent. (B)

22, Wednesday
Paris
Today we will enjoy an independent morning exploring Paris followed by an independent lunch. Then we will gather as a group to learn and discuss the question: What must be done, today? We will learn about the service and systemic change work of our Vincentian family at the Paris headquarters of Depaul France. Depaul France is part of an international Vincentian Charity established to end street homelessness. This evening we will gather for dinner and a time to discuss and reflect where we are at midweek. (B, D)

23, Thursday
Paris > Joigny > Fontainebleau > Paris
Another wonderful full-day excursion is planned outside of Paris. We will travel south to the village of Joigny. After time to visit Vincentian sites such as Église St. Germain and La Danse Macabre, a group lunch is planned at Le Rive Gauche. Next, we’ll double back to Fontainebleau for a brief late afternoon visit to the magnificent palace, which St. Vincent de Paul often visited on royal business and have a discussion on the Seeds of the Revolution. Back in Paris, the evening is free for independent dining. (B, L)
24, Friday
Paris
Today’s theme is: A Network of Charity – featuring Frederic Ozanam, a Vincentian family member who lived during the French Revolution. We’ll start with visits to Saint Sulpice and the Jardin du Luxembourg. After time for an independent lunch, we will visit Blessed Frederic Ozanam’s tomb and have a time of reflection about current social justice issues with local students. Next we travel on to the headquarters of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul for a visit to the museum and to learn about their global service and systemic change efforts. This evening we will enjoy dinner as a group. (B, D)

25, Saturday
Paris
Today we will discover Paris in terms of the city’s exquisite culture, delicious culinary and fascinating economy. We’ll start our day at a local French market, taking our time to explore and shop. After our visit there will be time for an independent lunch and afternoon before we meet this evening at the CM Motherhouse to walk together to a local restaurant for our final group meal. (B, D)

26, Sunday
Return
This morning we will transfer to Paris-Charles de Gaulle Airport, where we’ll check in for our return flight home to Chicago. We are certain that the DePaul Student Leadership Vincentian Heritage Tour has been a wonderful and meaningful experience! (B)
