Gospel Reflection

Matthew 22:34-40

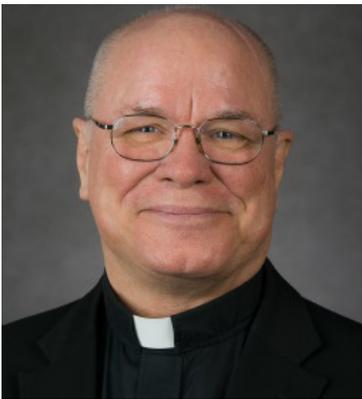

By: Jessica Camacho

Matthew 22:34-40 tells us about The Greatest Commandment. Jesus got questioned by a Pharisee about which is the greatest commandment in the Law. For Jesus, the greatest commandment is love, a commandment that is easy to follow: Love God and love your neighbor as yourself. Most of the time, something is easier said than done as sometimes, it can be difficult to love ourselves and recognize that we deserve to be loved. With our daily routines and our rushed lives we tend to forget about our faith, we forgot to take time to take care of ourselves and take care of those that surround us. Now, more than ever we need to practice the greatest commandment that Jesus taught us. We are currently living in an environment full of political and social tension but Jesus is calling us to practice tolerance and empathy, as well as to give and treat everyone with the fundamental dignity of the human person. We face the challenge of loving people who look and act differently and it is important to recognize that all of us are different, our classrooms and workplaces are often the places where we encounter a wide diversity of people who are closer to us and with whom we are constantly interacting with. Jesus is calling to leave aside our differences, implicit biases, and prejudices, and start replacing them with love. Jesus also calls us to question ourselves what are our priorities in everything we do as we tend to overtake unimportant situations over the need of love. The message of Jesus is all-embracing and covers all our relationships, from family, friends, and partners. But it even goes further than that, as we are called to love the wider community.

Tonight's President

Fr. Dan Borlik, C.M.

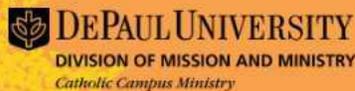

When asked about his origins or home, Fr. Dan always hesitates, smiles, and responds with something like...“well, I was born in Baltimore, raised in Texas, and lived here and there since then...” He has been a member of the Congregation of the Mission (“Vincentians”) since 1967 and a priest since 1976, and has never stopped studying – he earned his Doctorate of Ministry from Catholic Theological Union (Hyde Park) in 1999. His ministry has been unusually diverse and rich: he served as a seminary leader (“formator”), as a missionary in the northern jungles of Guatemala, a pastor in urban Dallas, as the Provincial Superior of the Vincentians in the South, and Director of the Vincentians’ international religious renewal program director in Paris. Fr. Dan has been with DePaul since the summer of 2017.

INTRODUCTORY RITE

GATHERING SONG – Canticle of the Turning

My soul cries out with a joyful shout that the God of my heart is great,
And my spirit sings of the wondrous things that you bring to the ones who wait.
You fixed your sight on your servant's plight, and my weakness you did not spurn,
So from east to west shall my name be blest. Could the world be about to turn?

My heart shall sing of the day you bring.
Let the fires of your justice burn.
Wipe away all tears, for the dawn draws near,
and the world is about to turn!

Though I am small, my God, my all, you work great things in me,
And your mercy will last from the depths of the past to the end of the age to be.
Your very name puts the proud to shame, and to those who would for you yearn,
You will show your might, put the strong to flight, for the world is about to turn.

From the halls of power to the fortress tower, not a stone will be left on stone.
Let the king beware for your justice tears every tyrant from his throne.
The hungry poor shall weep no more, for the food they can never earn;
There are tables spread, every mouth be fed, for the world is about to turn.

Though the nations rage from age to age, we remember who holds us fast:
God's mercy must deliver us from the conqueror's crushing grasp.
This saving word that our forebears heard is the promise which holds us bound,
'Til the spear and rod can be crushed by God, who is turning the world around.

GREETING

P: The grace of our Lord ... be with you all.

A: And with your spirit.

Come and Eat This Living Bread (ADORO TE DEVOTE, arr. Rob Glover)

Please DO NOT sing! Please hum instead.

Text and adaptation of ADORO TE DEVOTE by Rob Glover, © 1997, GIA Publications, Inc.

See the Christ in saddened sighs, blood poured out in every land.
Wounded people, wailing cries lie upon our outstretched hands.
Jesus is the way through death; truth beyond the present rage.
Life unfolding healing breath now enfleshed in youth and age.

Witnessing to love and peace, hands of blessing we remain.
Helping fear and hate to cease, we bring forth God's wondrous reign.
Strength and power here we find, given in this kingdom feast.
We go forth to heal and sign everyone, both great and least.
