Gospel Reflection

Mark 1:14-20

Elizabeth Amaya - Sophomore

I have still been struggling to fully give all my trust and love to Jesus but reading this passage and seeing other people do so is really inspiring. I am struck by verses 18 and 20, "Then they abandoned their nets and followed him... Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him." These 5 lines are so simple yet so powerful. The love and trust they have for Jesus to just drop and leave everything when Jesus is calling them is incredibly moving. Two summers ago, I had a dining hall server at a religious camp for middle schoolers for a month. There were several times when things did not go according to plan, plates, or someone dropped a freshly washed spoon (I am guilty of this last one). But every time something went differently than we expected, everyone put their trust in God and moved forward with the day. When I dropped the spoons, I felt so embarrassed but about three people rushed over to help me and no one made a big deal out of it. It was so refreshing to be in an environment where people had full faith in God and that everything was going to be okay.

I think we need to remember to put our trust in God, but also that there is grace in struggling with it as well. This year especially, I have had many painful experiences and joyful ones too. I have been reminding myself that God is behind all of it and things really do happen for a reason. In this passage, Jesus is calling us to put our faith in him, to not focus on what we cannot control because God is in control.

What did you do over break that brought you joy?

Justin Matuszewski:
Time to relax and read.

Kara Callahan:
Meditation, yoga, walking my dog, cooking

INTRODUCTORY RITE

GATHERING SONG — The Summons

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
 will you let my name be known,
Will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean,
 and do such as this unseen,
 and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around,
 through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

GREETING

P: The grace of our Lord ... be with you all.

A: And with your spirit.

COMMUNION PROCESSIONAL —

Come and Eat This Living Bread (ADORO TE DEVOTE, arr. Rob Glover)

Please DO NOT sing! Please hum instead.

Come and eat this liv-ing bread, take and drink this wine.

Come be nour-ished, healed and fed, shaped in - to God's sign.

Gath-ered 'round as fam-i - ly, man-y are made one.

Form-ing love's com-mu - ni - ty, one we now be - come.

Bless us, Lord, and these your gifts, fruit of vine and human hands.
With our hearts and minds we lift all the goodness of these lands.
Praise and thanks we shout and sing, from your bounty we are blessed.
Joyfully all gifts we bring to receive our Lord and guest.

May we see the Christ revealed in the breaking of the bread.
Living stories, holy meals, we become what we are fed.
Broken shattered, fragile life, now received by you and me.
Eating, drinking, joy and strife, Gospel living sets us free.
