GOSPEL REFLECTION

LUKE 24:35-48

Jillian Nalezny
Senior

In this gospel, Jesus approaches the disciples who at first are startled and don't believe that he is real. Jesus tells them to look at his hands and feet for proof that he is living and as a reminder of his love for them. He shares with them the scriptures and tells the disciples that they must be examples to others as he was to them.

It's in the times when I am most overwhelmed and fearful when I feel it is hardest to trust that I am on the right path, doing what God has planned for me. I find that a lot of times it is easier to doubt and feel frightened than to fully acknowledge that God has everything under control. The disciples had to see Jesus's body to believe and know that it was truly him by their side. Jesus shows them his body as proof of his eternal love for the disciples and that he endured so much pain for them. We may be scared at times or feel abandoned, but Jesus reminds us that there is nothing we cannot face when we have his love. It is in these moments when our faith is at its strongest.

"Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your mind?" Jesus is our healer. He is there when we seek comfort even when we don't ask for it and may not realize that he is there. He reminds us that we must not be afraid because he is with us and we should never be doubting this. In this passage, we are told that Jesus's love is all around us, even when we can't necessarily see it right away. This is what I think is beautiful about our faith. We hold in our hearts the ability to love and see God in others just as it was planned for us to do. As the disciples were told, we must live out our faith being examples for others to follow and find peace just as Jesus does.

INTRODUCTORY RITE

GATHERING SONG – All Are Welcome

Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions:
All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where prophets speak, and words are strong and true, where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:
All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat:
a banquet hall on holy ground, where peace and justice meet.
Here the love of God, through Jesus, is revealed in time and space;
as we share in Christ the feast that frees us:
All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

PREPARATION OF GIFTS — A Place at the Table

For everyone born, a place at the table, for everyone born, clean water and bread, a shelter, a space, a safe place for growing,
for everyone born, a start overhead!

And God will delight when we are creators of justice and joy, yes, God will delight when we are creators of justice, justice and joy!

For woman and man, a place at the table, revising the roles, deciding the share,
with wisdom and grace, dividing the power,
for woman and man, a system that's fair!

For young and for old, a place at the table, a voice to be heard, a part in the song,
the hands of a child in hands that are wrinkled,
for young and for old, the right to belong!

The musical notation is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are: "Come and eat this liv-ing bread, take and drink this wine. Come be nour-ished, healed and fed, shaped in-to God's sign. Gath-ered 'round as fam-i - ly, man-y are made one. Form-ing love's com-mu - ni - ty, one we now be - come." The third staff features two triplet markings (indicated by a '3' below the notes) over the words "fam-i" and "ly".

COMMUNION PROCESSIONAL – This is How

This how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.
If you have love for one another, all will know that you are my disciples.

This is how...

...in the washing of the feet,
...in the breaking of the bread,
...in the feeding of the hungry,
so all will know what you have done for me.

This is how...

...in the clothing of the poor,
...in the reaching out to all,
...in the speaking for the voiceless.
so all will know what you have done for me.

This is how...

...in the sharing of the meal,
...in the caring the weak,
...in the welcome of the other.
so all will know what you have done for me.
