

NSF Directorate for Biological Sciences Web Meetings on COVID-19

NSF's Directorate for Biological Sciences (BIO) staff are interested in hearing how the agency can mitigate the long-term harm of COVID-19 on U.S. research and training. NSF BIO will hold virtual office hours next week during which the biological science community can share concerns, ask questions, or offer suggestions on how we can do more to address this national emergency. Webcast Meeting Session dates and times are as follows:

Monday, March 30, 4-5 pm EDT

Tuesday, March 31, 3-4 pm EDT

Wednesday, April 1, 2-3 pm EDT

Thursday, April 2, 1-2 pm EDT

Additional meeting information, including registration links, is available
