Thank you to those who attended the Office of Research Service’s first Lunch & Learn session in March. Information on the remaining sessions for 2020-2021 are detailed below. These sessions will enable faculty to network with others across Colleges, share their research, and foster innovative partnerships. The meetings listed below will be conducted virtually, with the intention of being held on campus in the Fall.

University Platforms to Support Research
- Friday, April 23 from 12:00 – 1:00 pm

This panel discussion, led by Betty Shanahan, AVP Administration & Operations, will highlight a few University platforms that faculty can use to support their research. Panelists will include:

- Information Technology: Bob McCormick, VP Information Services
- Writing Center: Katherine Martin, Workshop & Digital Resource Coordinator
- Library resources: Heather Jagman, Coordinator of Reference, Instruction, and Academic Engagement

Outreach to Increase the Visibility of Your Research
- Friday, May 21 from 12:00 – 1:00 pm

This panel discussion, led by Lauren Miller, Director of Research & Innovation Strategies, will showcase various DePaul resources that can be used to showcase your research. Panelists will include:

- DePaul Blogs platform: Betty Shanahan, AVP Administration & Operations
- DePaul Research website: Cate Ekstrom, Director of Pre-Award Management
- Library resources: Heather Jagman, Coordinator of Reference, Instruction, and Academic Engagement

RSVP HERE

Zoom link to each workshop will be sent 2 days prior