Holidays

The schedule of university observed holidays is determined by the academic calendar. Prior to July 1 of each year, a schedule indicating the specific dates of university observed holidays for the upcoming fiscal year is posted on the DePaul University website. When a DePaul observed holiday differs from the nationally observed holiday (e.g. for holidays falling on a Saturday or Sunday), the DePaul academic calendar will prevail. Time reporting for holidays is outlined under the DePaul Time Reporting policy.

The university is closed for the following holidays (in order of Academic Calendar):

- Independence Day (July 4th)
- Labor Day
- Thanksgiving Holiday
- St. Vincent de Paul Day (varies from year to year)
- Christmas/New Year's Holiday
- Martin Luther King Day
- Good Friday
- Memorial Day

For the days listed above full-time staff, in active or paid leave status, receive holiday pay as follows:

- Exempt staff receive holiday pay as part of his/her regular biweekly salary.
- Non-exempt staff receive holiday pay at his/her regular rate of pay for regularly scheduled hour
- Non-exempt employees who are absent from work on the workday before a holiday, after a holiday, or both days will receive holiday pay provided that the absence is charged to pre-approved paid leave, pre-approved voluntary unpaid time off, vacation or sick time.

Holiday Pay for Work Performed on a University Observed Holiday

Non-exempt full-time staff who work on a university observed holiday receive pay for the holiday in addition to actual hours worked on that day.

When calculating overtime pay, the standard rate of overtime (1.5 x regular rate of pay) applies to actual hours worked, over 40 hours, during the applicable work week.

1. Example 1: if an employee works 7 hours on a holiday and 35 hours over the other 4 days of the week, a total of 42 hours is worked for the week. Hours worked over 40 in a week are paid at an overtime rate of time and a half. The employee's pay for that week will reflect 40 hours at the regular rate of pay, 2 hours of overtime pay and an additional 7 hours of holiday pay.
2. Example 2: If an employee is called in to work 7 hours on a holiday and is on vacation the remaining 4 days of the week, a total of 7 hours is worked for the week. Overtime pay does not apply since less than 40 hours are worked. The employee's pay for that week will reflect 7 hours at the regular rate of pay, 28 hours of vacation pay and an additional 7 hours of holiday pay.

Pay for University Observed Holidays while on Approved Leave with the University

Part-time staff (including students), and part-time faculty are not eligible to receive holiday pay. If required to work on a holiday, non-exempt part-time staff are paid only for hours worked.

Full-Time Staff on a vacation, paid sick leave, or other paid leave period will be paid for the holiday without any deduction from vacation or sick accrued balances if the holiday occurs during the paid leave period.

Full-time staff on pre-approved voluntary unpaid time-off will be paid for the holiday without any deductions from vacation or sick accrued balanced if the holiday occurs during the unpaid voluntary time-off period.

Full-time staff employees on unpaid leaves, other than pre-approved voluntary unpaid time off, are not eligible to receive holiday pay. Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) is an unpaid leave and holiday pay is not applicable.

Full-time staff employees who are scheduled to return to work from an authorized unpaid leave on a day in which the university is closed due to a holiday will be paid for the holiday provided they return to work as scheduled following the holiday.

New employees scheduled to begin work on a holiday when the university is closed will not be paid for the holiday and will begin employment on the day following the holiday, unless otherwise defined in the letter of employment offer, with joint agreement between Human Resources and the direct manager.

Floating Holidays

Full-time staff employees with six (6) months or more of cumulative full-time service are eligible for two floating holidays per calendar year. Employees may use floating holidays on any working day, with prior approval of the immediate manager. Floating Holidays must be taken in whole day increments.

Floating holidays are not accrued. Unused floating holidays cannot be carried over into the next calendar year. No payment is made for unused floating holidays at the time of termination.

Religious Holidays

DePaul University values religious diversity among its faculty and staff. Out of respect for the many religious holidays of different faiths that take place while the university is in session, academic and administrative officers of the university will make appropriate accommodations to allow faculty, staff and students to live and fully express their faith commitments. The employee may request to use vacation time or a floating holiday, if eligible, with prior approval from his/her manager.

School Visitation

The university observes the Illinois School Visitation Rights Act which allows full-time and part-time employees time off to attend school conferences or classroom activities of their children where such activities cannot be rescheduled during non-work hours. The leave permitted under this act is unpaid time off and cannot be taken unless all accrued time-off, with the exception of sick and disability leaves, has been exhausted. This includes accrued vacation. An employee must be employed at least six (6) continuous months to be eligible for School Visitation leave. See link in appendix for more information.

Jury Duty

All staff and faculty are provided with time off for required jury duty. Verification of actual jury service is required. The employee should notify his/her manager upon receipt of a jury summons so that arrangements can be made for the daily work flow. The employee is entitled to keep the compensation received from the court for jury service.

For full-time staff and full-time faculty, the university will pay regular base or contract pay for the time period absent from scheduled work as a result of jury duty.

For part-time staff and part-time faculty, the university will pay the regular rate of pay for the time period absent from scheduled work as a result of jury duty.

Voting

Employees are expected to vote during non-working hours whenever possible and practical. All staff and faculty are eligible to receive up to two (2) hours off from regular working hours to vote. An individual will be allowed time off work to vote if the workday begins less than two (2) hours after the opening of the polls or ends less than two (2) hours before the closing of the polls. Employees are expected to request time off prior to the day of the election. The specific period of time off will be determined in accordance with department needs. Employees who require time off work to vote will receive his/her regular rate of pay, base pay or contract pay, during this time.

Blood Donation

Full-time staff and full-time faculty are eligible for up to two (2) hours of paid time off to donate blood once every eight (8) weeks. Allowing time off for the donation of blood every eight (8) weeks complies with medical standards established by the American Red Cross, America's Blood Centers, the American Association of Blood Banks, and other nationally recognized standards. Employees are expected to obtain approval from his/her manager in advance.

Bereavement

Full-time staff and faculty are eligible for up to three (3) days of bereavement leave for the death of an immediate family member.

The university defines immediate family members as spouse, second domiciled adult (SDA), children, parents, parents-in-law, siblings, siblings-in-law, daughter/sons-in-law, grandchildren and grandparents.

Paid bereavement leave to attend the funeral of someone other than an immediate family member is limited to one (1) day, the day of the funeral. Approval by the immediate manager is required.
