

DePaul University
First-Generation College Celebration Week
Social Media Instructions
November 4-8, 2024

First-Generation students, faculty, staff, alumni, and allies at DePaul University are encouraged to post content on social media during First-Generation College Celebration (FGCC) Week from November 4-8.

Please note that the Office of Multicultural Student Success is hosting a FIRST GEN Instagram takeover using the handle @depaul_OMSS all day on Wednesday, November 6. Feel free to drop in and engage on their Instagram account during the FIRST GEN takeover.

Another option is to post the FIRST GEN symbol on your social media any time during FGCC Week and include the hashtag #FirstGenDePaul.

- Example post: #FirstGenDePaul, your journey is unique and inspiring. You're breaking barriers and paving the way for future Blue Demons. Your voice matters, your story is powerful, and your future is limitless. #CelebrateFirstGen

Also, if you happen to be First-Generation, you are welcome to post about your experience so others within the community feel supported.
