

DePaul Parent & Family Orientation Follow-Up Guide

Suggested Topics to Discuss with Your Student Between Orientation & Fall Quarter

- Expectations around communication, including the frequency and manner of communication you expect your student to engage in with you.
- How and when will you be involved with problem-solving, such as roommate disagreements, time management, work or academic challenges, etc.
- Advising appointment follow-up
- Health insurance coverage
- Follow-up with departments your student will need – refer to the Parent/Family Calendar for departments and contact information.
- To-dos: immunizations, housing arrangements, meal plan adjustments, final transcripts, loan/grant/scholarship processes

Topics for Ongoing Conversations

- Staying healthy and safe
- Making good decisions
- Finances
- Making connections on campus – attending events, meeting classmates, getting involved in clubs or groups on campus
- Communicating during struggles or challenges
- Your family's changing dynamics

More Resources for You

- ★ Parents.depaul.edu website (all of the following resources can be found here)
- ★ Parent & Family Calendar (pdf on website)
- ★ Parents@depaul.edu email account
- ★ “Parents @ DePaul” Facebook group
- ★ Quarterly “Family Connection” emails (links to previous editions on website)

What's Next?

- ✓ Move-In Information for DePaul/Affiliated Housing:
 - Move-In Information for DePaul Housing Services (Lincoln Park residence halls) - <http://offices.depaul.edu/housing/resident-resources/Fall%20Move-In/Pages/default.aspx>
 - Move-In Information for University Center - <http://www.ucmovein.com/>
 - If living off-campus, be sure to check with the landlord/management company to confirm lease dates and move-in details.
- ✓ Welcome Week
 - Starts in August and continues into early September – ways for new and returning students to connect with each other and the DePaul community.
 - Have your student visit welcomeweek.depaul.edu for a list of events and find a few they'd be interested in attending!
- ✓ Classes Start September 6th!
- ✓ Family Weekend
 - October 13 – 15, 2017
 - Visit go.depaul.edu/FamilyWeekend to get more information about registration, fees for the weekend, and frequently asked questions.