

EDUCATE BEFORE YOU RECREATE

FACT

Using or possessing cannabis remains prohibited under federal law, even though state law permits it beginning January 1, 2020.

FACT

Students convicted under federal or state law for drug-related offenses may be rendered ineligible for federal financial aid. This includes all federal loans, work study programs, and grants.

In accordance with federal law, DePaul will continue to prohibit the use and possession of cannabis on any premises owned or controlled by the university. This applies to students, employees and members of the general public who are visiting DePaul's campus.
