

WELCOME TO DEPAUL UNIVERSITY

2015 SUMMER CONFERENCE INFORMATION

WELCOME LETTER

NOVEMBER 15, 2014

On behalf of the Student Centers, I would like to thank you for your interest in DePaul University. Please take a moment to familiarize yourself with the helpful information provided in this guide. This includes campus maps and addresses, travel maps, Chicago highlights, sleeping and meeting room accommodations, and dining options.

DePaul University is first and foremost a school dedicated to teaching and fostering growth in young people. But, we are also a place for the exchange of ideas, a place for discourse open to all. Our summer conferences have the unique ability to enjoy a learning atmosphere, and the wonderful city of Chicago.

Our conference season traditionally extends from the last two weeks of June through the last day of July, and our meeting room availability varies depending on DePaul student orientation programs, with more rooms available on weekends.

If you should have any questions, please contact me at the number provided in the contact information section of this guide. I would be happy to answer any and all questions.

Thanks again for thinking of DePaul University!

Take care,

Jeff Quest
Assistant Director

DEPAUL UNIVERSITY

OUR MOTTO:

I WILL SHOW YOU THE WAY OF WISDOM.
*VIAM SAPIENTIAE MONSTRABO TIBI.

PROVERBS, IV, 11

WE WERE FOUNDED IN 1898, by the Congregation of the Mission (or Vincentian) religious community. The university derives its title and fundamental mission from Saint Vincent de Paul, the founder of the Congregation of the Mission.

The university's mission emphasizes academic excellence, service to the community, access to education and respect for the individual. DePaul University is the nation's largest Catholic institution of higher education and is also the nation's largest university with a primary mission of teaching and service.

WE HAVE FIVE
CAMPUSES, including
Lincoln Park, Loop, Naperville,
Oak Forest, and O'Hare

WE ARE BLUE DEMONS. DePaul's
intercollegiate athletic teams compete in NCAA Division I as a member of the historic Big East Conference. Our sports include women's basketball, cross country, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball; men's basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, tennis and track.

WE HAVE TEN SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES, including: College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences; College of Science and Health; College of Commerce; College of Communication; College of Computing and Digital Media; College of Law; School for New Learning; School of Education; School of Music, and The Theatre School. We offer more than 200 undergraduate and graduate programs of study.

OUR BUILDINGS

Nestled in the heart of Lincoln Park, the Student Center provides numerous options for your conference while remaining close to public transportation and countless city attractions. Built in 2001, the Student Center is the gathering place for DePaul University Student Life and offers a wide range of amenities, such as an information desk, DVD rental kiosk, a PNC Virtual Bank, numerous lounges, dining, and a copy center.

Courtelyou Commons was built in 1929 for the McCormick Theological Seminary and was used as their dining hall. In 1976, when the seminary left Lincoln Park, DePaul University purchased the Commons. The Cortelyou Commons is now used for a wide variety of events, including lectures, meetings, and weddings.

Munroe Hall opened in 1970 as DePaul's first residence hall and was completely renovated in 2000, and comes complete with numerous academic and administrative offices, including our meeting rooms: 114, 115, and 116.

CHICAGO

RICH WITH HISTORY, THE THIRD LARGEST CITY IN THE UNITED STATES IS FILLED WITH COUNTLESS AND VARIED EXPERIENCES FOR ANY VISITOR.

SPORTS

Chicago is home to several major professional teams, including the National Football League Bears, Major League Baseball Cubs and White Sox, the National Hockey League Blackhawks, and the National Basketball Association Bulls. In the summer, you'll be able to catch a game at historic Wrigley Field with the Cubs, or head down to Sox-35th on the CTA red line to watch the White Sox play ball.

MUSEUMS

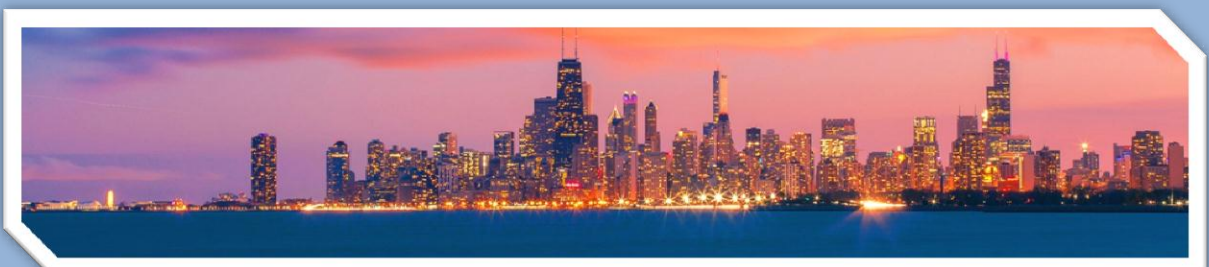

Chicago's Art Institute houses the largest collection of Impressionist paintings outside of the Louvre in Paris. Enjoy Chicago's 46 museums dedicated to art, science and technology. Visit the Museum of Broadcast Communications, where you can learn more about the early years of radio and television. Or, go see "Sue" the largest, most complete, and best-preserved Tyrannosaurus rex fossil at the Field Museum.

FESTIVALS

Chicago loves its summer festivals. From the famous Lollapalooza music festival, to Printer's Row LitFest, to Pride Fest, all the way through Taste Chicago, there are a hundred different kinds of festivals you can experience. Chicago's diverse neighborhoods and communities offer their own festivals and markets almost every week throughout the summer. You can go to the chill Pitchfork Music Festival in Union Park one week, and Fiesta del Sol in Pilsen the next.

TRAVEL

GETTING TO DEPAUL WILL NEVER BE A PROBLEM.

BY CAR

- The campus is accessible from both the Kennedy Expressway (I-90, I-94) and Lake Shore Drive (Route 41). From the expressway, take Fullerton Avenue east, and from Lake Shore, take Fullerton Avenue west.

NOTES ABOUT PARKING

- Visitor parking is available in the Sheffield Parking Facility, 2335 North Sheffield Avenue and the Clifton Parking Deck, 2330 North Clifton Avenue . There is a charge for parking in these lots, but discounts are available by having tickets validated at any of the main campus buildings.
- Permits are required to park in any DePaul University surface lot Monday through Friday.
- Passenger vans, buses, or other similar large vehicles must park in surface lots.
- In general, all posted City of Chicago parking regulations apply on the city streets of DePaul's Lincoln Park Campus.

BY CTA TRAIN

- There are three Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) rapid transit lines that service the Lincoln Park Campus. All stop at the Fullerton Avenue station.
 - The Red Line (Howard/Dan Ryan) crosses the city from north (Howard Street 7600 North) to south (95th Street and the Dan Ryan Expressway). There are several downtown Red Line subway stops located along State Street.
 - The Brown Line (Ravenswood) services the north and the near northwest areas of the city. In the downtown area, several stops are available along the famous Loop El, the elevated rail line that circles the downtown area.
 - The Purple Line (Evanston Express) is available downtown during peak travel periods at loop elevated stations and travels north to Evanston with a stop at Fullerton Avenue. The Purple Line does not operate on weekends.

BY BICYCLE

- It is possible to rent a Divvy bike at any of their kiosks around Chicago. There is a Divvy kiosk on campus at Sheffield & Fullerton.
- Bicycles are not permitted inside buildings.
- The university encourages the use of bicycles in providing parking racks by the entrance of most campus buildings.

BY CTA BUS

- These buses stop near the Lincoln Park Campus:
 - #8 - Halsted Street: to and from 79th Street and Broadway.
 - #37- Sedgwick/Ogden: to and from Fullerton/Sheffield and Cermak/Pulaski.
 - #74- Fullerton Avenue: to and from the Brickyard Mall and Lincoln/Webster.

BY METRA TRAIN

- Take public transportation from the Metra stations to the Lincoln Park Campus. The Brown Line (Ravenswood) is recommended.

GETTING HERE FROM THE AIRPORTS

DRIVING FROM O'HARE (APPROX. 17 MILES)

Exit airport on I-190 east. This highway merges with I-90 east about 2 miles east of the airport. I-90 then merges with I-94 about 5 miles east of the I-190/1-90 merge. Continue on I-90/94 (Kennedy Expressway) to Fullerton Avenue exit (2400 north). Turn left (east), and continue on Fullerton approximately 1 1/2 miles to campus.

DRIVING FROM MIDWAY (APPROX. 13 MILES)

Exit airport. Turn left at Cicero Avenue (Ill 50). Approximately 2 miles north to Stevenson Expressway (I-55). Right turn (north) onto Stevenson. Continue on Stevenson to northbound Lake Shore Drive (US 41), approximately 6 miles to Fullerton Avenue exit (2400 north). Turn left (west), and continue on Fullerton approximately one mile to campus.

TAKING PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

The CTA provides elevated train service from downtown Chicago to both of Chicago's airports. From O'Hare, take the Blue Line to the Jackson stop. From Midway, take the Orange Line to the Library stop at Van Buren and State. To get to the Lincoln Park Campus from downtown Chicago while traveling these lines:

On the Blue Line, transfer to the Brown Line at the Clark and Lake stop, or to the Red Line from the Washington or Jackson stops, and go north to Fullerton.

On the Orange Line, transfer to the Brown Line at the Clark and Lake stop, or to the Red Line from the State and Lake stop, and go north to Fullerton.
