World Catholicism Week 2019*
Put Away Your Sword: Gospel Nonviolence in a Violent World
May 3-5
DePaul University Lincoln Park Campus

The Center for World Catholicism and Intercultural Theology (CWCIT) invites you to World Catholicism Week 2019. In 2017, on the 50th anniversary of the Vatican’s first World Day of Peace message, Pope Francis issued the groundbreaking statement, “Nonviolence: A Style of Politics for Peace.” It was perhaps the Vatican’s first official statement on active nonviolence, and it raises a number of important questions for the world Church: Is God nonviolent, and does God want us to renounce violence as well? In a violent world, does nonviolence work? In this conference, speakers from around the world—Lebanon, Kenya, Colombia, India, Brazil, Italy, Croatia, the U.S., and the Philippines—will explore these questions through five different lenses, each a different roundtable discussion. Visit http://worldcathweek.depaul.edu for details and registration info.

Thursday, May 23, 11:30 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.
Richardson Library 207, 2350 North Kenmore Avenue

In 1975, two centuries after her birth, Pope Paul VI canonized Elizabeth Ann Seton, making her the first saint to be a native-born citizen of the United States in the Roman Catholic Church. Seton came of age in Manhattan as the city and her family struggled to rebuild themselves after the Revolution, explored both contemporary philosophy and Christianity, converted to Catholicism from her native Episcopalian faith, and built the St. Joseph's Academy and Free School in Emmitsburg, Maryland. Hers was an exemplary early American life of struggle, ambition, questioning, and faith, and in this flowing biography, Catherine O'Donnell has given Seton her due.
