SCHOLARSHIPS

MONARCH SCHOLARSHIP
Scholarship opportunity for FAFSA-ineligible, immigrant, undergraduate students. Student selections will be based on financial need, academic performance, extracurricular activities and community service. Students must pick up application materials available at Lincoln Park Student Center, Suite 105. Due May 19, 2019, at 4:00PM

GAY ASIAN PACIFIC ALLIANCE
The purpose of the GAPA Foundation Scholarship is to celebrate and reward outstanding scholar activists who are making a positive impact on the API and LGBTQ communities. High school seniors, undergraduate, graduate, and trade/vocational school students are encouraged to apply. Due June 9, 2019

KOREAN AMERICAN SCHOLARSHIP FUND
KASF scholarships (which range from $500 to $5,000) are offered to the qualified Korean American students (including foreign students from Korea). All applicants must be enrolled in a full time program in the U.S during the scholarship application year. Due June 30, 2019

CONTACT THE COORDINATOR
Eva Long, MEd.
elong9@depaul.edu
773/325-3444
O’Connell Hall, Room 384
Southeast Asian Perseverance Week: Mini Film Screening
Viewing of compilation of stories and interviews of the DePaul community who identifies across the Southeast Asian diaspora.

Film Screening: American Revolutionary | Grace Lee Boggs
The documentary film, plunge us into Bogg's lifetime of vital thinking and action, transversing the major U.S. social movements of the last century; from labor to civil rights, to Black Power, feminism, the Asian American and environmental justice movements and beyond. Join us for this film screening as we celebrate the inaugural Grace Lee Boggs Heritage Breakfast the following day.

Grace Lee Boggs Heritage Breakfast
Join us at the inaugural Grace Lee Boggs Heritage Breakfast. This year's keynote speaker is Tuyet Le. For over eighteen years, Tuyet Le led Asian Americans Advancing Justice | Chicago (Advancing Justice | Chicago) as its executive director. Please RSVP on Eventbrite by clicking the event title above.

Disoriented Comedy
Disoriented Comedy is the first-ever (mostly) female Asian American stand-up comedy tour. Since its first show in July 2012, this national network of veteran up-and-coming comedians have performed in over fifty independently-produced comedy and storytelling shows at comedy clubs, theaters, colleges and universities. Disoriented Comedy is currently co-produced by Jenny Yang, Atsuko Okatsuka, and D'Lo.

Zine Making | Occupying Space, Reclaiming our Asian American Identity
Join us in learning more about the art of making a zine and contribute to the first edition of a collective APIDA Cultural Center zine centered around this year's theme: 'Occupying Space, Reclaiming our Asian American Identity.'

Inaugural Faculty-Student Research Colloquium
Immigration, Politics and Action
Our panel of experts includes a special guest, Dr. Erin Chung, Associate Professor of East Asian Politics and Co-Director of the Racism, Immigration, and Citizenship (RIC) Program at the Johns Hopkins University. Dr. Chung will explore the challenges of incorporating immigrants in countries like Japan, South Korea, and Taiwan, and common issues of social diversity and the practice of democracy.
The Politics of Food and Authenticity
The APIDA Cultural Center will host a panel of local Asian and Pacific Islander chefs and restaurant owners to discuss how food relates to identity. What makes food authentic? How can cuisine and culture be appropriated? How do we balance tradition and modernization? Our panelists will answer all of these questions and more!

Asian Cultural Exchange (ACE) Show
ACE Show and Senior Banquet is an end of the year celebration showcasing the achievements and talents of DePaul's APIPA community! The event will be held Thursday May 23rd from 7:00-10:00pm at Cortelyou Commons so mark your calendars! Formal wear is encouraged. The night will be filled with performances, speeches, and lots of FREE FOOD! Be sure to RSVP now!

Rise Up: Graduation Banquet
This event recognizes the academic achievements of DePaul University Asian, Pacific Islanders, Desi American undergraduate and graduate students and their families and allies. This includes students who graduated Fall 2018, Winter 2019 and who will graduate Spring 2019 and Summer 2019. This event involves a recognition ceremony performance, keynote address and a gift for graduates. Dinner will be provided. Please RSVP by clicking the event title above.

Japan Night
Join DePaul Japan Table for their annual showcase of Japanese culture! This event will include presentations by on-campus Japanese cultural programs and off-campus Japanese organizations. There will be games, a taiko (traditional Japanese drum) performance, a karaoke contest, and food catered by Kizuki Ramen. All are welcome!

Why Vincent Chin Matters | Independent Project by Reina Ashley Nomura and Hannah Lau
Hello! We are Reina and Hannah, two students creating a short documentary film on Vincent Chin and the erasure of his story. We are seeking 3-5 APIDA-identifying students to participate in our short documentary regarding the story of Vincent Chin. For this project, we will be interviewing APIDA students on whether they know Vincent Chin's story and their thoughts/feelings about it after viewing a short biographical video. You do not need prior knowledge of Vincent Chin; little knowledge to no knowledge is preferred. If you are interested in participating, please fill out this form: https://forms.gle/toZHgiDEiJgfPNdS6. For any questions, please reach out to reinaashleynomura@gmail.com and hanunnahlau@gmail.com